

In the interests of the preservation of the hobby of ham radio and attraction of more potential operators, I strongly urge the commission to deny this petition-- it would mire ham radio in the past and make it unattractive to potential licensees due to the morse code requirement. Thank you.